

BUNCHES OF TAPAS

We went to Park Güell to admire Gaudi's architecture and the flowers. Afterwards, we followed Gaudi's hexagon shaped sidewalk tiles to tapas! Where did we end up after tapas?

Answers fit into the rows garden in two ways. Rows read consecutively left to right. Blooms are six-letter answers that fill the hexagons of the same colour, either clockwise or counterclockwise. Bloom clues are randomly ordered.

Rows

- A. Tapas
- B. Professional explainer
Explanation
- C. Creative
ANGERED, creatively
Tapas
- D. Mini machine
Minimart clerk
Mini creature
- E. Leaves home (2 wds)
Evacuate, eject, or leave suddenly
Letter that leaves the puzzle setter's mouth when she realize she made a mistake
LEAVE or ALEVE?
- F. Character who is never on time (2 wds)
Toy with "Time Warp" trick
Obstruct a process, e.g., by wasting time
- G. Satisfactorily
Satisfy
Tapas

- H. Trespass grounds
Plan, e.g., to break new ground
Ground
- I. Open, when cooked
In cooking, chicken, turkey, or squab
Wound, e.g., burn from cooking
Cooks again
- J. Raise blockade
Raised dots
Thin, e.g., raised neck
- K. A Gibson
Might be styled with a Gibson tuck
Hermit Gibson's home
Drink to go with tapas
- L. American adaptation of Indian board game

- Social outcast
- Take in a child
- Untaintedness

Light gray blooms

- Atonement and absolution
- Feasible
- Food in a steamed corn husk
- French town
- Hardened skin
- Heiress of Belmont
- Legal entitlements
- Put in custody
- Reviser
- Shopping center
- Symbol
- Those of a superior group
- Tunic
- Whiskey and vermouth

White blooms

- 😊😊😊
- Against
- Area
- Big constellation
- From the same mother
- Male goose
- NYC corner store
- Period of inactivity
- Plan
- Recess or niche
- Reliquious string of beads

Dark gray blooms

- Castro, Lennon, or Assange
- Grimaud, Fischer, or Costello
- Lane for entering freeway
- Pertaining to the sun
- Scoring guide
- Spinning
- Two consecutive letters
- Wild dog
- Witch meeting
- Woodwind player